

DCTC | DEFENSE CIVILIAN
TRAINING CORPS

Apply Now by April 3!

CLASS OF 2027

Apply now to the Defense Civilian Training Corps!

The Defense Civilian Training Corps (DCTC) Program has partnered with the University of Arizona and Air Force Sustainment Center (AFSC) Software Directorate in Hill Air Force Base, UT, and Office of the Undersecretary of War (Research & Engineering) in Yuma Proving Ground, AZ. These organizations seek applicants interested in a one-year development experience with a pathway to employment into a career as a Department of War (DOW) civilian.

DCTC BENEFITS

-  8-week project-based summer internship
-  $10k summer internship stipend
-  Pathway to employment within the DOW
-  Security clearance
-  $5k completion bonus

Air Force AFSC Preferred Areas of Study

Air Force AFSC is seeking candidates majoring in: Electrical Engineering, Computer Science, and Computer Engineering

Office of the Undersecretary of War (Research & Engineering) Preferred Areas of Study

Office of the Undersecretary of War (Research & Engineering) in Yuma Proving Ground, AZ seeking candidates majoring in: Engineering, Science and Math

Pathway to Employment

Air Force AFSC, Office of the Undersecretary of War (Research & Engineering) will approve candidates to participate in the cohort, host summer internships, and make decisions on the transition into full-time civilian positions

DCTC PROGRAM OVERVIEW

-  DCTC Development Intensive #1
Virtual and In-Person Intensive (Washington D.C.)
May 26 - June 5, 2026
-  8-Week Summer Internship
June 8 - July 31, 2026
-  DCTC Development Intensive #2
Virtual and In-Person Intensive (Washington D.C.)
January 2027
-  Pathway to DOW Employment
Summer 2027

For more information, visit acgirc.org/dctc/dctcscholarapp

